

Whangārei's Best Known Cafes

1 | Acropolis Cafe Bar & Grill

You may accuse us of being biased but it's hard to go past the coffee at Acropolis Cafe Bar & Grill, and the friendly service, handy location and stunning views make it even better. In the heart of Port Nikau, Acropolis makes amazing coffee and we would definitely recommend heading back for lunch or dinner to try their authentic Greek cuisine.

2 | Sabio

You'll find this coffee lover's cafe on Lower Dent Street, a stone's throw from the Hātea Loop. Sabio roast their own beans and sell a selection in-store, so why not grab a bag of locally roasted beans to take away with you? The kitchen works magic on an all-day breakfast menu or you can opt for delicious cabinet options with regular keto and paleo favourites and plenty of sweet treats.

Looking for Long Blacks and Lattes

3 | Hello Pickle

Serving Supreme Coffee, this is a local favourite and ideal if you're on the road. They make their own pickles and relishes on-site, and are well-known for great coffee and a tasty range of sandwiches, so we recommend popping in for coffee and a delicious bite to eat.

4 | Mrs Kwacka's Coffee Shop

You'll find this coffee shop inside the Huanui Fresh produce store on Ngunguru Road in Glenbervie, a great stop-off on your way to or from the Tutukaka Coast. Their daily selection of decadent sweet treats, savouries and pies sell out quickly so arrive early to take your pick!

5 | Kafé

Attached to Waterman's World surf shop on Riverside Drive, this cafe makes the best iced coffees in town. Get one to go while you walk the Hātea Loop or grab a table out the back overlooking the river. Further along the Loop Walk, you'll also find an awesome coffee cart in the carpark next to the Te Matau ā Pohe Bridge.

6 | Manaia Espresso

Why not support local and buy a bag of local Tutukaka-based roasting company Manaia Espresso's beans or try a cup at Smith & Local at Parua Bay – they make awesome pizzas too if you happen to visit around lunchtime.

Home to coffee lovers

Whangārei is home to plenty of coffee lovers and the city has lots of great cafes for a catch-up with friends or to meet the locals. Here are a few options to get started as you work your way around the city, looking for the most flavourful coffees in town.

Keep in mind that cafes in Whangārei tend to close around 2pm, so they're best suited for breakfast through to lunch (reusable cups welcome). After around 2pm, head instead to one of our awesome restaurants or bars, most of which serve coffee until late.
